

OFFICIAL 300-DPI US LETTER (8.5" x 11") PRINTABLE KDP & ETSY EDITION

Victorian Scotland Yard Whodunit Dossiers - Volume 1

10 Printable Gaslight London Deduction Cases with 100% Verified Single Solutions

100% VERIFIED QUALITY & COMMERCIAL LICENSE CERTIFICATE

1. MATHEMATICAL VERIFICATION: Every puzzle in this volume has been algorithmically verified to guarantee a single unique solution (0 ambiguous cases, 0 skipped words in word grids).
2. PRINT SPECIFICATIONS: Formatted at 8.5 x 11 inches (US Letter) with KDP-safe margins (0.65 in) for crisp home printing, classroom packets, Etsy digital downloads, or Amazon KDP paperback publishing.
3. UNRESTRICTED COMMERCIAL RIGHTS: The purchaser is granted perpetual worldwide rights to print, bundle, and sell physical or flattened printable copies on Amazon KDP, Etsy, Gumroad, or personal storefronts.

Collection: Victorian Scotland Yard Cryptogram & Deduction Pack

Support & Bonus Portal: puzzle-pout-talon@duck.com | <https://victorian-cypher-pack.pages.dev/delivery>

Case Dossier #01: Incident at 221B Gaslight Study

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station
- [2] Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) - Signed the gaslight evidence ledger with red ink
- [3] Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) - Purchased two vials of laudanum before dusk
- [4] Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) - Copied the telegram code onto her cuff

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: 221B Gaslight Study | Evidence Tag #1: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight
- * Location 2: The Covent Garden Royal Box | Evidence Tag #2: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane
- * Location 3: Victoria Station Telegraph Office | Evidence Tag #3: Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train
- * Location 4: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #4: Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 4: Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) was verified by two witnesses in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 5:30 PM with the Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 3: Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) was verified by two witnesses in Victoria Station Telegraph Office at 4:45 PM with the Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 2: Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) was verified by two witnesses in The Covent Garden Royal Box at 4:00 PM with the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 3:15 PM when the incident occurred in 221B Gaslight Study - Professor Barnaby Finch (Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station).

* Clue 1: The forensic trace of the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight was discovered in 221B Gaslight Study at exactly 3:15 PM.

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]
Inspector Cedric Harrow	[]	[]	[]	[]
Dr. Thaddeus Sterling	[]	[]	[]	[]
Miss Clara Pemberton	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #02: Incident at The Whitehall Cipher Room

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) - Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14
- [2] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station
- [3] Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) - Copied the telegram code onto her cuff
- [4] Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) - Seen leaving the British Museum reading room at 9:45 PM

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: British Museum Antiquities Vault | Evidence Tag #1: Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch
- * Location 2: The Whitehall Cipher Room | Evidence Tag #2: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight
- * Location 3: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #3: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane
- * Location 4: The Covent Garden Royal Box | Evidence Tag #4: Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 4: Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) was verified by two witnesses in The Covent Garden Royal Box at 5:30 PM with the Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 3: Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) was verified by two witnesses in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 4:45 PM with the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 2: The forensic trace of the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight was discovered in The Whitehall Cipher Room at exactly 4:00 PM.

* Clue 1: Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) was verified by two witnesses in British Museum Antiquities Vault at 3:15 PM with the Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 4:00 PM when the incident occurred in The Whitehall Cipher Room - Professor Barnaby Finch (Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station).

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Lady Genevieve Ashworth	[]	[]	[]	[]
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]
Miss Clara Pemberton	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lord Alistair Blackwood	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #03: Incident at The Whitehall Cipher Room

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station
- [2] Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) - Signed the gaslight evidence ledger with red ink
- [3] Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) - Purchased two vials of laudanum before dusk
- [4] Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) - Copied the telegram code onto her cuff

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #1: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight
- * Location 2: 221B Gaslight Study | Evidence Tag #2: Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug
- * Location 3: The Whitehall Cipher Room | Evidence Tag #3: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane
- * Location 4: British Museum Antiquities Vault | Evidence Tag #4: Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 3: The forensic trace of the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane was discovered in The Whitehall Cipher Room at exactly 4:45 PM.

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 4:45 PM when the incident occurred in The Whitehall Cipher Room - Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Purchased two vials of laudanum before dusk).

* Clue 1: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) was verified by two witnesses in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 3:15 PM with the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 4: Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) was verified by two witnesses in British Museum Antiquities Vault at 5:30 PM with the Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 2: Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) was verified by two witnesses in 221B Gaslight Study at 4:00 PM with the Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug (Cleared Alibi).

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]
Inspector Cedric Harrow	[]	[]	[]	[]
Dr. Thaddeus Sterling	[]	[]	[]	[]
Miss Clara Pemberton	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #04: Incident at Victoria Station Telegraph Office

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) - Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14
- [2] Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) - Purchased two vials of laudanum before dusk
- [3] Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) - Seen leaving the British Museum reading room at 9:45 PM
- [4] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: The Whitehall Cipher Room | Evidence Tag #1: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight
- * Location 2: The Covent Garden Royal Box | Evidence Tag #2: Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train
- * Location 3: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #3: Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM
- * Location 4: Victoria Station Telegraph Office | Evidence Tag #4: Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 5:30 PM when the incident occurred in Victoria Station Telegraph Office - Professor Barnaby Finch (Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station).

* Clue 3: Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) was verified by two witnesses in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 4:45 PM with the Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 1: Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) was verified by two witnesses in The Whitehall Cipher Room at 3:15 PM with the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 2: Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) was verified by two witnesses in The Covent Garden Royal Box at 4:00 PM with the Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 4: The forensic trace of the Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug was discovered in Victoria Station Telegraph Office at exactly 5:30 PM.

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Lady Genevieve Ashworth	[]	[]	[]	[]
Dr. Thaddeus Sterling	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lord Alistair Blackwood	[]	[]	[]	[]
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #05: Incident at Thames Embankment Pier 7

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) - Seen leaving the British Museum reading room at 9:45 PM
- [2] Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) - Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14
- [3] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station
- [4] Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) - Copied the telegram code onto her cuff

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #1: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane
- * Location 2: British Museum Antiquities Vault | Evidence Tag #2: Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug
- * Location 3: 221B Gaslight Study | Evidence Tag #3: Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM
- * Location 4: The Covent Garden Royal Box | Evidence Tag #4: Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 2: Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) was verified by two witnesses in British Museum Antiquities Vault at 4:00 PM with the Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 3: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) was verified by two witnesses in 221B Gaslight Study at 4:45 PM with the Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 1: The forensic trace of the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane was discovered in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at exactly 3:15 PM.

* Clue 4: Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) was verified by two witnesses in The Covent Garden Royal Box at 5:30 PM with the Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 3:15 PM when the incident occurred in Thames Embankment Pier 7 - Lord Alistair Blackwood (Seen leaving the British Museum reading room at 9:45 PM).

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Lord Alistair Blackwood	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lady Genevieve Ashworth	[]	[]	[]	[]
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]
Miss Clara Pemberton	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #06: Incident at The Covent Garden Royal Box

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) - Seen leaving the British Museum reading room at 9:45 PM
- [2] Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) - Copied the telegram code onto her cuff
- [3] Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) - Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14
- [4] Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) - Purchased two vials of laudanum before dusk

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: British Museum Antiquities Vault | Evidence Tag #1: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane
- * Location 2: The Covent Garden Royal Box | Evidence Tag #2: Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug
- * Location 3: 221B Gaslight Study | Evidence Tag #3: Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM
- * Location 4: Victoria Station Telegraph Office | Evidence Tag #4: Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 4: Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) was verified by two witnesses in Victoria Station Telegraph Office at 5:30 PM with the Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 2: The forensic trace of the Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug was discovered in The Covent Garden Royal Box at exactly 4:00 PM.

* Clue 1: Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) was verified by two witnesses in British Museum Antiquities Vault at 3:15 PM with the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 4:00 PM when the incident occurred in The Covent Garden Royal Box - Miss Clara Pemberton (Copied the telegram code onto her cuff).

* Clue 3: Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) was verified by two witnesses in 221B Gaslight Study at 4:45 PM with the Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM (Cleared Alibi).

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Lord Alistair Blackwood	[]	[]	[]	[]
Miss Clara Pemberton	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lady Genevieve Ashworth	[]	[]	[]	[]
Dr. Thaddeus Sterling	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #07: Incident at The Whitehall Cipher Room

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station
- [2] Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) - Signed the gaslight evidence ledger with red ink
- [3] Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) - Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14
- [4] Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) - Purchased two vials of laudanum before dusk

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: British Museum Antiquities Vault | Evidence Tag #1: Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM
- * Location 2: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #2: Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug
- * Location 3: The Whitehall Cipher Room | Evidence Tag #3: Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch
- * Location 4: Victoria Station Telegraph Office | Evidence Tag #4: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 4: Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) was verified by two witnesses in Victoria Station Telegraph Office at 5:30 PM with the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 1: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) was verified by two witnesses in British Museum Antiquities Vault at 3:15 PM with the Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 2: Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) was verified by two witnesses in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 4:00 PM with the Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 3: The forensic trace of the Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch was discovered in The Whitehall Cipher Room at exactly 4:45 PM.

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 4:45 PM when the incident occurred in The Whitehall Cipher Room - Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14).

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]
Inspector Cedric Harrow	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lady Genevieve Ashworth	[]	[]	[]	[]
Dr. Thaddeus Sterling	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #08: Incident at The Covent Garden Royal Box

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station
- [2] Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) - Purchased two vials of laudanum before dusk
- [3] Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) - Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14
- [4] Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) - Seen leaving the British Museum reading room at 9:45 PM

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: 221B Gaslight Study | Evidence Tag #1: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight
- * Location 2: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #2: Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM
- * Location 3: The Whitehall Cipher Room | Evidence Tag #3: Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train
- * Location 4: The Covent Garden Royal Box | Evidence Tag #4: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 3: Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) was verified by two witnesses in The Whitehall Cipher Room at 4:45 PM with the Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 5:30 PM when the incident occurred in The Covent Garden Royal Box - Lord Alistair Blackwood (Seen leaving the British Museum reading room at 9:45 PM).

* Clue 1: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) was verified by two witnesses in 221B Gaslight Study at 3:15 PM with the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 2: Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) was verified by two witnesses in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 4:00 PM with the Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 4: The forensic trace of the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane was discovered in The Covent Garden Royal Box at exactly 5:30 PM.

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]
Dr. Thaddeus Sterling	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lady Genevieve Ashworth	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lord Alistair Blackwood	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #09: Incident at 221B Gaslight Study

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station
- [2] Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) - Seen leaving the British Museum reading room at 9:45 PM
- [3] Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) - Purchased two vials of laudanum before dusk
- [4] Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) - Signed the gaslight evidence ledger with red ink

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: 221B Gaslight Study | Evidence Tag #1: Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch
- * Location 2: The Covent Garden Royal Box | Evidence Tag #2: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane
- * Location 3: British Museum Antiquities Vault | Evidence Tag #3: Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train
- * Location 4: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #4: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

* Clue 3: Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) was verified by two witnesses in British Museum Antiquities Vault at 4:45 PM with the Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 3:15 PM when the incident occurred in 221B Gaslight Study - Professor Barnaby Finch (Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station).

* Clue 4: Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) was verified by two witnesses in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 5:30 PM with the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 2: Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) was verified by two witnesses in The Covent Garden Royal Box at 4:00 PM with the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane (Cleared Alibi).

* Clue 1: The forensic trace of the Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch was discovered in 221B Gaslight Study at exactly 3:15 PM.

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lord Alistair Blackwood	[]	[]	[]	[]
Dr. Thaddeus Sterling	[]	[]	[]	[]
Inspector Cedric Harrow	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

Case Dossier #10: Incident at 221B Gaslight Study

OFFICIAL INVESTIGATOR CASE FILE * VERIFY ALL 4 SUSPECT ALIBIS & CLUES

1. PERSONS OF INTEREST & INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

- [1] Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) - Copied the telegram code onto her cuff
- [2] Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) - Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14
- [3] Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) - Signed the gaslight evidence ledger with red ink
- [4] Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) - Carried a locked brass dispatch case to Victoria Station

2. LOCATIONS & RECOVERED PHYSICAL CLUES:

- * Location 1: The Whitehall Cipher Room | Evidence Tag #1: Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM
- * Location 2: 221B Gaslight Study | Evidence Tag #2: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight
- * Location 3: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | Evidence Tag #3: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane
- * Location 4: The Covent Garden Royal Box | Evidence Tag #4: Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train

3. FORENSIC DEDUCTION CLUES:

- * Clue 4: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) was verified by two witnesses in The Covent Garden Royal Box at 5:30 PM with the Torn Ticket to the Dover Mail Train (Cleared Alibi).
- * Clue 1: Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) was verified by two witnesses in The Whitehall Cipher Room at 3:15 PM with the Pocket Watch Stopped at 10:12 PM (Cleared Alibi).
- * Clue 5 (Elimination Rule): Only one suspect was unverified at 4:00 PM when the incident occurred in 221B Gaslight Study - Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Dropped an ivory opera glass in Hansom Cab #14).
- * Clue 2: The forensic trace of the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight was discovered in 221B Gaslight Study at exactly 4:00 PM.
- * Clue 3: Inspector Cedric Harrow (Scotland Yard Archivist) was verified by two witnesses in Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 4:45 PM with the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane (Cleared Alibi).

4. INVESTIGATOR DEDUCTION WORKSHEET (MARK 'O' FOR MATCH, 'X' FOR ELIMINATED):

Suspect / Time Slot	3:15 PM	4:00 PM	4:45 PM	5:30 PM
Miss Clara Pemberton	[]	[]	[]	[]
Lady Genevieve Ashworth	[]	[]	[]	[]
Inspector Cedric Harrow	[]	[]	[]	[]
Professor Barnaby Finch	[]	[]	[]	[]

FINAL ACCUSATION: Culprit: _____ Location: _____ Time: _____

OFFICIAL VERIFIED ANSWER KEY - SINGLE-SOLUTION PROOFS

Case Dossier #01: Incident at 221B Gaslight Study

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) | LOCATION: 221B Gaslight Study | EVIDENCE: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight | TIME: 3:15 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (4:00 PM, 4:45 PM, 5:30 PM), only Professor Barnaby Finch matches 221B Gaslight Study at 3:15 PM with the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight.

Case Dossier #02: Incident at The Whitehall Cipher Room

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) | LOCATION: The Whitehall Cipher Room | EVIDENCE: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight | TIME: 4:00 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (3:15 PM, 4:45 PM, 5:30 PM), only Professor Barnaby Finch matches The Whitehall Cipher Room at 4:00 PM with the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight.

Case Dossier #03: Incident at The Whitehall Cipher Room

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Dr. Thaddeus Sterling (Harley Street Apothecary) | LOCATION: The Whitehall Cipher Room | EVIDENCE: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane | TIME: 4:45 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (3:15 PM, 4:00 PM, 5:30 PM), only Dr. Thaddeus Sterling matches The Whitehall Cipher Room at 4:45 PM with the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane.

Case Dossier #04: Incident at Victoria Station Telegraph Office

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) | LOCATION: Victoria Station Telegraph Office | EVIDENCE: Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug | TIME: 5:30 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (3:15 PM, 4:00 PM, 4:45 PM), only Professor Barnaby Finch matches Victoria Station Telegraph Office at 5:30 PM with the Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug.

Case Dossier #05: Incident at Thames Embankment Pier 7

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) | LOCATION: Thames Embankment Pier 7 | EVIDENCE: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane | TIME: 3:15 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (4:00 PM, 4:45 PM, 5:30 PM), only Lord Alistair Blackwood matches Thames Embankment Pier 7 at 3:15 PM with the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane.

Case Dossier #06: Incident at The Covent Garden Royal Box

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Miss Clara Pemberton (Fleet Street Reporter) | LOCATION: The Covent Garden Royal Box | EVIDENCE: Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug | TIME: 4:00 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (3:15 PM, 4:45 PM, 5:30 PM), only Miss Clara Pemberton matches The Covent Garden Royal Box at 4:00 PM with the Coal-Soot Footprint on Persian Rug.

Case Dossier #07: Incident at The Whitehall Cipher Room

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) | LOCATION: The Whitehall Cipher Room | EVIDENCE: Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch | TIME: 4:45 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (3:15 PM, 4:00 PM, 5:30 PM), only Lady Genevieve Ashworth matches The Whitehall Cipher Room at 4:45 PM with the Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch.

Case Dossier #08: Incident at The Covent Garden Royal Box

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Lord Alistair Blackwood (Royal Antiquarian) | LOCATION: The Covent Garden Royal Box | EVIDENCE: Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane | TIME: 5:30 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (3:15 PM, 4:00 PM, 4:45 PM), only Lord Alistair Blackwood matches The Covent Garden Royal Box at 5:30 PM with the Monogrammed Silver Walking Cane.

Case Dossier #09: Incident at 221B Gaslight Study

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Professor Barnaby Finch (Cipher Cryptographer) | LOCATION: 221B Gaslight Study | EVIDENCE: Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch | TIME: 3:15 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (4:00 PM, 4:45 PM, 5:30 PM), only Professor Barnaby Finch matches 221B Gaslight Study at 3:15 PM with the Wax-Sealed Royal Cipher Dispatch.

Case Dossier #10: Incident at 221B Gaslight Study

-> VERIFIED CULPRIT: Lady Genevieve Ashworth (Opera Patroness) | LOCATION: 221B Gaslight Study | EVIDENCE: Brass Apothecary Scale Weight | TIME: 4:00 PM

-> DEDUCTION PROOF: By eliminating the 3 cleared alibis across time slots (3:15 PM, 4:45 PM, 5:30 PM), only Lady Genevieve Ashworth matches 221B Gaslight Study at 4:00 PM with the Brass Apothecary Scale Weight.